Tracey Webster

Tracey is a dynamic woman of Africa. She will inspire and entertain us as she regales us with the story of her success and the passion that drives her. She was the founding member and CEO of the Starfish Greathearts Foundation, who support 22 000 orphans, she held the position of Executive director at the African leadership Institute, whose flagship program is the Archbishop Desmond Tutu leadership fellowship which builds leaders in Africa.

She has been selected for “Facing a Century” - a collection of 100 people actively changing the face of our continent.

She was CEO of the Branson centre for entrepreneurship, and has been awarded an Archbishop Tutu Fellowship as well as being chosen to carry the Olympic torch as a ‘real hero’ of Africa.

Jane Linley-Thomas

Jane matriculated at St Anne's in 1997 and was boarder in Macrorie. She is a high energy, passionate, inspirational and exuberant journalist and a much loved radio personality. She will entertain us as we enjoy a delicious harvest table and complimentary glass of wine.
